

ALBERTA INSURANCE COUNCIL
(the "AIC")

In the Matter of the Insurance Act, R.S.A. 2000 Chapter I-3
(the "Act")

And

In the Matter of Cameron Taylor
(the "Agent")

DECISION
OF
The Life Insurance Council
(the "Council")

This case involved an alleged violation of s. 481(2) of the Act. Specifically, that the Agent failed or refused to provide information requested by the Minister, through the AIC, by way of a formal demand for information (the "Demand"). In so doing, it is alleged that the Agent subsequently violated s. 480(1)(b) of the Act.

Facts and Evidence

This matter proceeded by way of a written Report to Council dated September 18, 2023 (the "Report"). The Report was forwarded to the Agent for review, and to allow the Agent an opportunity to provide the Council with any further evidence or submissions by way of Addendum.

This matter arose due to the Agent's failure to respond to a Demand made in the course of an investigation into a complaint made against the Agent.

The Agent held Life and Accident and Sickness ("A&S") certificates of authority during the period of May 6, 2022 to May 3, 2023 when the Agent resigned from her position.

On June 6, 2023, the AIC sent a request for information to the Agent via email.

On July 25, 2023, the Agent responded to the AIC investigator with the following information:

I am wondering if you could supply me with information regarding [A.I.L.] [redacted]. [...] to make sure everything is clear.

[...]

By way of email dated the same, the AIC investigator requested the following from the Agent:

[...]

I am unclear on your request. Please clarify your question.

As well, I am still waiting for a response to the attached correspondence.

On August 1, 2023, the AIC investigator requested the Agent respond to the AIC's June 6, 2023 and July 25, 2023 correspondence, by August 17, 2023.

On August 21, 2023, the AIC sent a Demand to the Agent via email and regular mail, with a response deadline of September 11, 2023.

Between August 21, 2023 and August 25, 2023, there was correspondence between the Agent and the AIC, however, the Agent did not provide the information requested in the Demand.

On September 6, 2023, the AIC investigator sent a reminder to the Agent to respond to the Demand by the deadline provided.

The Agent has not provided a response to the Demand or the Report.

Discussion

The Minister of Treasury Board and Finance has delegated its authority to the AIC to investigate complaints against holders, and former holders, of certificates of authority. Pursuant to Ministerial Directive 01/11 to the AIC "[t]he Minister may direct the holder or former holder of a certificate of authority to provide to the Minister within a reasonable period of time specified in the direction any information specified by the Minister relating to the matters in s. 480(1)." Subsection 2 states that "... A person served with a direction ... who has the information must provide the information in accordance with the direction" (emphasis added).

The Demand itself is formed under s. 481(2) of the Act.

Section 481 of the Act provides, in part;

Demand for information

481(1) The Minister may direct the holder or former holder of a certificate of authority to provide to the Minister within a reasonable period of time specified in the direction any information specified by the Minister relating to the matters in section 480(1).

(2) A person served with a direction under subsection (1) who has the information must provide the information in accordance with the direction.

Section 480 of the Act provides:

Sanctions affecting certificates

480(1) If the Minister is satisfied that the holder or a former holder of a certificate of authority [...]

(b) has contravened any provision of this Act or the regulations or similar legislation in another jurisdiction or legislation that is a predecessor of this Act or the regulations, [...]

[...] the Minister may revoke, suspend or refuse to renew or reinstate one or more of the certificates of authority held by the holder, impose terms and conditions provided for in the regulations on one or more of the certificates of authority held by the holder and impose a penalty on the holder or former holder.

[Emphasis added]

Section 780 of the Act stipulates:

Offences

780 A person who contravenes any of the following provisions is guilty of an offence:

[...] (c) in Part 3, sections [...] 481(2)

In this regard, the act of failing to provide information in accordance with s. 481(2) of the Regulation, and the potential violation of s. 481(2) of the Act regarding the Demand prompted the AIC to commence an investigation.

Regulatory offences such as these are strict liability offences. As such, the AIC has the onus to prove that the Demand was properly made upon the Agent, proper in the sense that they meet all the requirements under the Act, and that the Agent did not comply. Once this occurs, the responsibility then shifts to the Agent to establish that due diligence was exercised in meeting the statutory requirement to respond. To substantiate this due diligence defence, the Agent must prove that all reasonable means were taken to avoid making the offence. There is nothing that requires the AIC to prove that the Agent's failure to respond was intentional.

In consideration of the evidence before it, and the appropriateness of the request to provide information under the Regulation, the Council is satisfied that the Demand met the requirements of s. 481(2) of the Act. The Council is in agreement that the Agent was provided a reasonable opportunity to respond to the Demand and the Agent failed to respond, in a meaningful way, when called upon, therefore, the Agent has not met the burden of proof to establish a due diligence defence. As such, the Council finds the Agent guilty of violating s. 481(2) of the Act, as alleged, and also finds that the Agent has subsequently violated s. 480(1)(b) of the Act.

In terms of the applicable sanction, the Act requires that all holders, and former holders, of certificates of authority produce information when called upon. The Council is of the view that the public is not well-served when insurance agents simply ignore demands made by the AIC, like the Demand made in this case. Pursuant to s. 36.1(1)(b) of the Insurance Agents and Adjusters Regulation, A.R. 122/2001, the Council has the discretion to levy a civil penalty in an amount up to $1,000.00. Given the facts in their entirety, the Council is of the view that a significant penalty is warranted in the circumstances. Therefore, the Council orders that a civil penalty in the amount of $1,000.00 be levied against the Agent.

The civil penalty of $1,000.00 must be paid within thirty (30) days of the mailing of this Decision. In the event that the civil penalty is not paid within thirty (30) days interest will begin to accrue at the prescribed rate. If the Agent has active certificates of authority at the time that the civil penalty becomes due, and that civil penalty has not been duly satisfied, the Agent's active certificates of authority will be suspended in accordance with s. 480(4) of the Act. Pursuant to s. 482 of the Act (excerpt enclosed), the Agent has thirty (30) days in which to appeal this decision by filing a Notice of Appeal with the Office of the Superintendent of Insurance.

This Decision was made by way of a motion made and carried at a properly conducted meeting of the Life Insurance Council. The motion was duly recorded in the minutes of that meeting.
